Report: CMET Workshop on “Tools for Scientific Writing”: 22 January, 2015 for AIIMS Faculty, Residents, Pool Officers & Ph.D. Students.

A half day workshop on “Tools for Scientific Writing” for the faculty, residents, pool officers and Ph.d. students of AIIMS was held at CMET on 22 January, 2015. Dr. O.P. Kharbanda, Chief, CMET, addressed the participants and informed them about the importance and relevance of these tools. He also encouraged for more participation of the faculty as well as residents, pool officers, Ph.d students in the forthcoming CMET activities on Medical Education.

Sh. Yogesh Kumar, Educational Media Generalist was the resource faculty.

Forty nine (49) participants registered for the workshop from different departments of AIIMS. The participants had a rich learning experience by doing various hands on exercises in MS word. The exercises were:

Page set up	Table
Uses of tabs	Reference footnote
Header footer	Review/ track change
Bullets and numbering	Mail merge

The participants felt the program interesting and informative. They have also suggested that this type of program should be conducted regularly.
