

Post of Scientists in DBT Capacity Building Project (Scientist D) in Glue Scheme

Applications are invited by the Research Section, All India Institute of Medical Sciences, Ansari Nagar, New Delhi-110029 from Indian citizens for the following posts in a Glue Grant Scheme project in the Department of Pediatrics funded by the Department of Biotechnology, Govt. of India, entitled “Developing a long term partnership for translational health research in child health”. The project aims to develop a platform for translational research in child biology in selected areas through a collaboration of clinicians and scientists. The Department of Pediatrics is in partnership with the Pediatric Biology Center at the Translational Health Sciences and Technology Institute of the DBT to implement this project.

The project envisages placement of one scientist in DBT Capacity Building Project (Scientist D) in the Department of Pediatrics on contractual basis for duration of 11 months to be reviewed and extended from time to time, maximum period upto October 2015.

Scientist in DBT Capacity Building Project (Scientist D)

1. MSc. (Biotechnology/biochemistry/microbiology/genetics/immunology/zoology or any other branch of human biology)/MBBS, with PhD in molecular human biology or related area from a recognized university.
2. Post PhD 3 years' research experience
3. Two publications in indexed journals.

Interested candidates may submit their CV in a sealed envelope in Room No 3053, 3rd Floor, Department of Pediatrics, AIIMS, Ansari Nagar, and New Delhi -110029.

Last date: 14 August 2014