

Required For Extramural project:

Study Coordinator:

Qualification: BSc with 2 years of research experience in clinical research.

Preferable:

1. Substantial experience as a Study co-ordinator in a Multi centric clinical trial with working knowledge of drug accountability, maintaining temperature log, drug dispensation based on IVRS, CRF completion. Co-ordination of various activities during patient visits like – screening and randomizing the patients, filing of the reports.
2. Training and Experience in performing DEXA scans of patients.
3. Qualification and work experience of Preparing Diet Charts and giving dietary counselling to patients.

Staff Nurse:

Qualification: Certificate in general Nursing and midwifery from a recognised institution.

Preferable:

Proficient in maintaining the drug log, temperature log, drug dispensation based on IVRS, experience with CRF completion, blood sample collection for adult and children, centrifugation, packing, shipping, performing ECG, holter, assisting in OPD, filing of the reports.

Lab technician:

Qualification: Degree in Science from a recognised University.

Preferable: Co-ordination with patients for blood and radiological investigation, reports, follow up, collection and filing of reports, Will be required to assist in OPD.

Those Interested mail CV by 6th January, 2017 to vivekapjyotsna@gmail.com.