

Instructions for Students for filling the Application form in NSP 2020-21:

National Fellowship and Scholarship for Higher Education of ST Students (earlier known as Top Class Scholarship Scheme)

1. National Fellowship and Scholarship for Higher Education of ST Students (earlier known as Top Class Scholarship Scheme) is intended to encourage meritorious ST students to pursue courses at Graduate/Post Graduate level in identified Institutions of Excellence, Government and Private, in professional fields such as Management, Medicine, Engineering, Information Technology, and Law etc.
2. Total family income from all sources of the student shall not exceed Rs.6.0 lakh per annum for all ST students.

The family income shall be computed in the following manner: -

- I. In case where both father and mother are working, the combined income of both of them from all sources shall be taken into account in computing total family income.
- II. In case any other member of the family, other than father and mother is an earning member, his or her income shall not be included in computing total family income.
- III. In case only one parent is alive, the income of that parent shall be taken into account for considering total family income. If other sibling or family member is an earning member, their income shall not be included in computing total family income.
- IV. In case of an orphan, supported by a guardian, income criteria shall not apply.

Note 1: Definition of Income - Income means gross income including income from all sources e.g. Salary, Interest Income, House property Income, Business Income, Agriculture Income, Income from any other Sources etc. It is clarified that Income for the purpose of scholarship is not the taxable Income as defined in Income Tax Act. Under the income tax act gross total income means Income after excluding the exempt income and total income means Income after giving deduction available under section 80. For the purpose of deriving family income, the deductions and exemption available in the Income Tax Act u/s 10, Section 80 or any other section will not be available in computing family income under the scheme.

Note 2: The income certificate given at the time of admission should be take in the same year for which the admission is taken. In the case of salaried employee, the income of previous financial year will be considered for the purpose of eligibility. For example, if candidate applies afresh for academic year 2020-21, the family income for financial year 2019-20 would be required.
